CESAR CHAVEZ TEACH-IN

Labor and Legacy | March 29, 2012

March 29, 2012
Hayward City Hall
Rotunda
777 B Street
Hayward, CA 94541
5:00PM to 7:30PM
Speakers begin at 6:00PM
Free

Speakers, refreshments, and fellowship. Cesar Chavez's work reached across many different labor communities and his legacy continues to touch families all across the United States. Speakers will discuss Cesar Chavez's work across labor communities and the relevancy of his legacy on labor today in the 21st Century. Speakers include: Dr. Maria Ochoa, Professor of Interdisciplinary Social Science, San Jose State University; Ms. Cindy Chavez, Director of the South Bay Labor Council; and performing corridos in memory of Cesar Chavez are Bay Area musicians Jorge Gabriel Martinez and Hector Perez. For more information, call or e-mail Hayward City Council Member Mark Salinas (510) 583-4357 / mark.salinas@hayward-ca.gov or Hayward City Council Member Francisco Zermeno (510) 583-4352 / francisco.zermeno@hayward-ca.gov