

CHRISTMAS... Toys to delight Hayward area youngsters, whom Santa Claus might otherwise forget, are being made by firemen of the Hayward department in a project undertaken annually. In addition to the spare-time craftsmanship that goes into the project, firemen are also raising their sixtieth annual ball on Nov. 25 as a means of raising funds to help with their Christmas welfare work. Here

City Manager John Ficklin, right, looks on as Chief Louis Silver, left, Lt. John Demz, Firemen Al Condit and George Ducher manipulate the iggaw to design the lead of a hobby horse.

FIRST MARINERS IN FRONT LINE ACTION—Under the greatest trees on the island of Woiki these Leathernecks wipe out the remaining North Koreans in the advance on Inchon. This individual action was typical of the fighting in the capture of Seoul, and in the advance above the 38th parallel.
