

MARCH THE HAYWARD SHORELINE

#StandupforScience

Photo by Cris Benton

In solidarity with the national March for Science and Earth Day, join us for a 1.5 mile walk and group aerial photo on the Bay Trail, which is projected to be underwater by 2050.

Hayward Shoreline Interpretive Center

Saturday, April 22, 10 am - 12 pm

4901 Breakwater Ave

10:30: We March ■ 11:00: Aerial Photo

- Parking along Breakwater or in the lots at Breakwater & Whitesell (limited shuttle service for those who need it)
- Bring water bottles, sunscreen, brain hats, & signs, and dress as your favorite scientist or animal
- This is a family-friendly, peaceful, nonpartisan, zero-waste event - Please respect wildlife and fellow marchers

MAKE ART FOR THE MARCH

Sat, April 8, 11am - 1pm

Brain Hat Workshop

Hayward Main Library

Show off your smarts with this crafting craze. We will have some supplies, and please bring any recycled items you have from home.

Sat, April 15, 11am - 1pm

Sign Making for All Ages

Sun Gallery, 1015 E St, Hayward

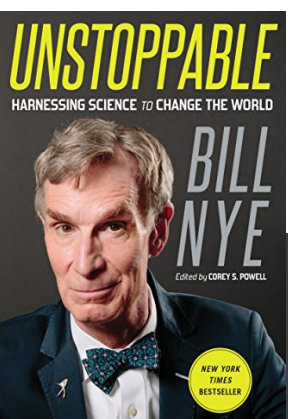

Make sure your message to the world shines bright. We will have poster boards, markers and paint for your whole family.

Please register online so we know how many people to expect

Read the book. Discuss. Join the Action.

Questions: 510-881-7700

Details & Registration: www.HaywardBooktoAction.org

This event is part of the 2017 Book-to-Action series "Confronting Climate Change," sponsored by the Library and City of Hayward, Cal State East Bay, Hayward Area Recreation and Park District, Sun Gallery, and Friends of the Hayward Library.

CAL STATE
EAST BAY
CENTER FOR COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

HAYWARD
LIBRARY

H
HAYWARD

Sun Gallery

